

The Journey

Take action on Climate Change through entrepreneurship and apply now for Australia's first three-week entrepreneurial residential school.

The Journey will take you and 29 other budding climate change entrepreneurs on a three-week journey across Victoria. From validating an idea to understanding the market, structuring a business, and building a team, The Journey gears you up for the world of climate entrepreneurship. Get the tools to make an impact on the global effort to find solutions to climate change, and become an entrepreneur!

The Journey will provide you with first class opportunities to:

- Network with and relate personally to like-minded peers at all career levels and from diverse disciplines;
- Meet the people who matter and can inspire in business, academia and the public sector, including entrepreneurs putting their ideas into practice;
- Explore climate change in its scientific, environmental, social, and economic contexts;
- Work in a hands-on way in multidisciplinary teams supported by business coaches to develop and pitch your own ideas as potential business ventures tackling climate change.

At the end of the Journey you will be able to position and pitch your own business idea and will have the right entrepreneurial tools to help you design and further develop your idea. Jump-start your future entrepreneurial path in climate change adaptation and mitigation by applying for The Journey today.
